This directory is dedicated to the business owners who had taken the time to submit their information. We live in a rich, vibrant Rural Community that is full of potential and growth. These businesses are a crucial part of our culture. Please support local when you can so we can share successes together.

The celebration of coming together to form Central York Rural Community is an exciting time. There will be many developments and possibilities in the future.

We are also indebted to Ignite Fredericton for printing this directory and for their support, training and guidance.
